Diocesan Annual Appeal

The Diocesan Annual Appeal has begun. This year, we are looking for higher participation. If you cannot give a gift, then please still fill out a card with your prayer intentions. This still counts toward our goal. Please be generous. This supports our mission churches as well as other ministries.

From Father Michael

How does love relate to law? We tend to think they are often opposites. We think of those who follow the law very strictly as legalists who often seem to us not to have compassion.

However, todays readings insist that law and love are ultimately related. Without law, love is mere emotion. Without love, law is cold. The readings also point out that the love of God is the highest law.

The first reading from Exodus is taken from the "Covenant Code", laws which many scholars see as the oldest in Scripture, a set of civil laws given to Israel to help govern the nation. They are a prelude to the Ten Commandments, the first three of which emphasize the love of God, and the last seven love of neighbor. Jesus, when questioned about the greatest commandment, tied the love of God (Dt 6:5) and love of neighbor (Leviticus 19:8) together, emphasizing that we are called to love God with all our being. The love of neighbor flows from realizing we are all created in God's image, and so we are called to love and reach out to all we meet. In doing both there is no conflict between following God's law and loving others.

OCIA Sponsors Needed

We still need a few more sponsors for our catechumen and candidates. If you are willing to help with this process, please contact Karen Rowe at 607 267-0405 or klrowe@cdlex.org

We ask that you accompany them through the process and attend OCIA classes with them on either Thursday night or Sunday morning (Which ever they usually attend. Please consider this very important ministry. It is a true blessing to be part of this process.

October is Respect Life Month!

The Pope has asked all to pray the rosary during the month of October.

Teaching Mass with Fr. Flanagan is this Thursday!

October 29th at 6 PM to 8 PM. We encourage everyone to attend and learn more about the Mass. Father will explain each part as he says Mass.

Youth Group News

The Youth group will be dressing as saints for the October 28th meeting. Come and join the fun! This is for students in grades 6-12!

Circle of Grace

On November 1, we will be doing our mandatory training for grades K-5. This will be with the parents, catechists and students. It will be during Coffee Call in the OBC. On November 8, the training will be in the Confirmation Room for students, catechists, and parents for Grades 6-12.

All Saints Day

Father Michael is going to lead us in a brief blessing, prayer and dedication of the recently completed Columbarium Garden after the 10:15 Mass on All Saints Day. Please plan to join us and together we will remember the souls of the faithful departed in this beautiful, sacred space!

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR SACRAMENTAL PREPARTATION

We are implementing a new criterion for receiving First Communion for next year. We would like all students to be in formation classes for at least two years before receiving the sacrament. Please register your child immediately to be in the Grade 1 class if they plan on receiving First Communion in May 2028! Please contact Karen Rowe if you have any questions! Registration is online or you can fill out the registration form that is found in the OBC. Do not delay. Let's get all the little ones in classes on Sundays, especially those first graders!
