Diocesan Annual Appeal

The Diocesan Annual Appeal has begun. This year, we are looking for higher participation. If you cannot give a gift, then please still fill out a card with your prayer intentions. This still counts toward our goal. Please be generous. This supports our mission churches as well as other ministries.

FROM BILLY SIMS

In this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 22:1-14), Jesus shares the parable of the wedding banquet. A king invites guests to celebrate his son's wedding, but the invited guests make fun of it, acting as if they are way too busy and important, while others mistreat the messengers. The king becomes very angry and opens the doors to everyone on the main roads, filling the hall with both bad and good people alike. However, one man arrives without a wedding garment and is cast out into the darkness, reminding us that "Many are called, but few are chosen."

Today, this parable hits close to home. How often do we treat Christ's invitation to the ultimate feast (the Holy Mass) as something secondary to other events? Between chaotic work schedules, mindless scrolling, and weekend chores, it is easy to come up with some kind of excuse not to go to Mass.

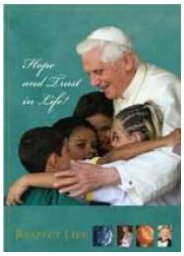

Yet, the Lord continuously invites us to His banquet. More importantly, wearing the "wedding garment" requires us to show up with an open heart ready for Christ. It's not enough to merely occupy a pew on Sunday, we must clothe ourselves in Christ's mercy, humility, and love, leaving behind the worn-out clothes of sin, pessimism, and distraction.

This week, let us check our priorities. Will you accept The King's invitation fully, letting His grace renew your heart?

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR SACRAMENTAL PREPARTATION

CCD Classes resume on October 11th. OCIA resumes on Thursday, October 15th. We are implementing a new criterion for receiving First Communion. We would like all students to be in formation classes for at least two years before receiving the sacrament. Confirmation is already a two-year program. Please register your child immediately to be in the Grade 1 class if they plan on receiving First Communion in May 2028! Please contact Karen Rowe if you have any questions! Registration is online or you can fill out the registration form that is found in the OBC. Do not delay.

Important Parent Meeting for Confirmation Students

We will meet in the church on October 18th to discuss items needed from you for the Confirmation Retreat. It will be at 11:45 AM
