Diocesan Annual Appeal

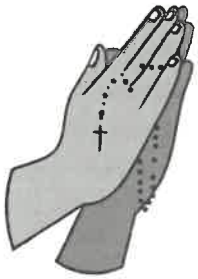

The Diocesan Annual Appeal has begun. This year, we are looking for higher participation. If you cannot give a gift, then please still fill out a card with your prayer intentions. This still counts toward our goal. Please be generous. This supports our mission churches as well as other ministries.

FROM BILLY SIMS

As we journey through the final weeks of the liturgical year, the Gospel of Matthew (25:1–13) invites us to reflect on the Parable of the Ten Virgins. Five were wise, bringing extra oil for their lamps and five were foolish, unprepared for the bridegroom's delayed arrival. When he finally came at midnight, only those with burning lamps were ready to enter the wedding feast.

For the modern Catholic, this passage offers a powerful wake-up call. Life today moves at a dizzying pace. Between career demands, family responsibilities, and endless digital distractions, it is easy to let our spiritual "lamps" run dry. We can fall into the trap of spiritual complacency, assuming we have plenty of time to tend to our relationship with God. The "oil" in this parable represents the grace we cultivate through daily prayer, frequent reception of the Sacraments, acts of charity, and living out the Gospel. We cannot borrow spiritual readiness from others. It must be intentionally nurtured in our own hearts.

Let us ask ourselves this week: Are we actively preparing our hearts for Christ's presence in our daily lives, or are we simply sleepwalking through our faith? Stay awake, keep your lamps trimmed, and let your light shine for the Lord this week and always!

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Mary Hornback, who passed away last week. Mary is the mother of our parishioner Ann Hall. Please keep Ann and her family in your prayers.

Circle of Grace

On November 8, the training will be in the Confirmation Room for students, catechists, and parents for Grades 6-12.

OCIA Sponsors Needed

We still need a few more sponsors for our catechumen and candidates. If you are willing to help with this process, please contact Karen Rowe at 607 267-0405 or klowe@cdlex.org

We ask that you accompany them through the process and attend OCIA classes with them on either Thursday night or Sunday morning (Whichever they usually attend). Please consider this very important ministry. It is a true blessing to be part of this process.

Confirmation Retreat

Please pray for all the students who are attending the Confirmation Retreat on Friday, November 13-15. We have 22 students, 6 youth leaders and 8 adults. we will be focusing on the fruits of the Holy Spirit through the lives of American Saints.

Youth Group News

Once again our youth will be participating in the Pilgrimage in the Park 5K run on Thanksgiving Day. We invite all parishioners, friends and family to sign up as well and be a part of Saint Mildred's team. When you register make sure you say you are part of Saint Mildred's. We won the title last year and hope to win again.

As always if you have any questions about Youth Group or need anything reach out to Lindsay or Travis Shrum.

Outreach News

The Clothing Center needs the following items: all sizes of socks, underwear, towels and queen sized sheets.
Also needed are canned vegetables, tuna fish and macaroni and cheese. It is only through your generous donations, financially as well as food and clothing, that we are able to assist those less fortunate.

During the month of September we helped 49 children and 79 adults with various needs. We gave food to nine people. Already by October 21st we have given food to 48 people.
